MAN-POWER ACT

Will be Passed by the Senate Practically as War Department Drafted the Measure.

The man-power bill, stripped by the conferees of the Senate and House of every amendment objectionable to the War Department, was finally passd by the House yesterday without a dissenting vote. Similar action is looked for in the Senate today, so that the signature of the President will make the bill a law by Saturday.

In the form in which the bill was reported by the conferees to the House all the amendments which might have operated to handicap the Provost Marshal General in calling the men of 18 to 45 into immediate service were eliminated. The anti-strike amendment, the amendment for the drafting of resident aliens, the Penrose amendment excusing the registrants from claiming exemption, and the France amendment for the wearing of badges of those exempted for agricultural or industrial pursuits were all taken out.

Amendments which stay in the bill are those which permit officers to obtain their uniforms from the government at cost, the provision for the technical education of soldiers, and the provision that the wives of soldiers and sailors shall not be disqualified from accepting government positions.

The Norwegian papers are said to demand that the lost vessels be replaced by German tonnage and indemnities paid the families of the lots sailors.

Amusements

GRAND—"Judas Iscariot betrayed his master for thirty pieces of silver," said Christopher Foy to his supposed friend who had set the sheriff upon the ne'er-do-well and cattle rustler, who was speaking. "What you ought to get is thirty pieces of lead right through your black heart." There was a woman for the prize in the rugged contest that was waged in "The Desire of the Moth," which will be shown at the Grand tomorrow. Ruth Clifford will impersonate the prize.

RICHMOND—With every chance in the world for success, having inherited countless millions and a strong physique from his paternal parent, Charles Ray still insists that he is an incurable drunkard—and proceeds to demonstrate the fact notwithstanding that science declares him absolutely immune. It all happens in his newest Paramount picture, "The Family Skeleton," in which he will be seen at the Richmond Theatre tonight. How his dainty sweetheart succeeds in curing him in spite of himself has been humorously shown in the photoplay which was directed by Victor L. Schertzinger under the supervision of Thomas H. Ince and which boasts a splendid cast including Sylvia Bremer.

Charlie Chaplin will be seen in "A Night Out," a great laugh producer.

KAISER VISITING BULGARIA

Copenhagen, Aug. 30.—Kaiser Wilhelm is at Bad Nauheim, visiting King Ferdinand of Bulgaria, according to official announcement in the German press.

He was a son of the late A. J. Groves, Jr., and his mother lives at Manassas, Va., and in addition to his mother he is is survived by a sister, Miss Alice Groves, Manassas, and two brothers, Frank Groves, of Washington, D. C., and Harry Groves, now employed at Camp Humphreys, Va.

PROHIBITION JULY 1, 1919

Senate Votes "Bone Dry;" House Will Do Likewise And President Sign

War-time, bone-dry prohibition, to begin July 1, 1919, and continue until the termination of the demobilization of the troops, was voted by the Senate yesterday without a roll call.

Manufacture of distilled spirits has already been stopped and the prohibition of the making of wine, it has been repeatedly shown, cannot be classed as a food conservation measure. The drive of the amendment is particularly directed, therefore, at the manufacture and sale of beer, because there is still a large stock of whiskey on hand and it will all be taken out of bond before the law takes effect. Senator Thomas said yesterday that distilled spirits will be available under this law just as they are now available in the so-called "dry" territory of the country.

Turn Rabbit Pests Into Profits.

Fully 200,000,000 wild rabbits are killed in the United States every year according to estimates made by the Biological Survey of the United States Department of Agriculture. Many of the mare jack rabbits, the majority of which have not been utilized in the past. If all the rabbits killed were consumed, they would represent between 200,000 and 300,000 tons of valuable food, and if proper measures were taken to insure the collection of skins, these alone would have a value of $20,000,000. The Biological Survey has frequently been called upon to help western farmers in coping with the rabbit pest. In view of the probable economic value of rabbit meat and fur in the coming few years, the energies of the farmers and ranchmen will be directed to the conservation of this important resource. Already a number of establishments for collecting, dressing, canning, and shipping rabbit meat are in operation in western centers. As in Australia the transition of the wild rabbit in this country from its status as a pest to source of profit is assured, it is believed.

2 CENTS A POUND FOR SUGAR

But Then Japan And Java Have Too Much, so Naturally Prices There Are Down.

While housewives of America and Europe are suffering from a shortage of sugar, those of the Far East have a superabundance of the sweet. Tokyo sugar dealers are wroth, for they fear the product of the Japanese Empire is to be driven off the market, or greatly lowered in value, by sugar imported from Java.

Java is at the bottom of the trouble. With a smaller export demand than usual, its centrifugal sugar has accumulated into great stocks at Batavia and Sourabaya, and consequently prices there are down. This week the prices have dropped from $3.25 to $3.10 a picul (133 pounds,) so that the present price at Batavia for centrifugal sugar is about 2 1-3 cents a pound. With higher prices in Japan, is is to be expected that sugar should flow this way. It is being suggested in Tokyo that available space on ships plying from Yokohoma to San Francisco and Seattle should be devoted to sugar on the ground that it is not economy to waste either ship space or fruit available for canning.

5,000 TO REGISTER

Expected That This Number From This City And County Will Register. Three Thousand Estimated in City—Forty Registrars to do Work Here.

Five thousand men from this city and Alexandria county is the number from 18 to 45 years old expected to register in the draft which will take place early next month.

Preparations for the work are now being made by the local draft board.

It is estimated that fully 3,000 in this city will register.

The estimated number in the city of whites who will register is 2,500, and 500 colored.

In Alexandria county, which is the same unit of the city, it is estimated that the total number of whites will be 1,500 and that their will be 500 colored.

The local draft board will have four registration places in the city and eight in Alexandria county. The work will be done in the city by forty registrars and there will be thirty to look after the work in Alexandria county.

It is expected that one of the places for registration in the city will be rooms of the local board which probably will be used for those who live in the first ward.

GET COAL NOW FOR BROODERS AND INCUBATORS

Because of the domestic requirements of the Northwestern section of this country, and the absolute necessity of taking care of the actual needs of that section, and because of transportation facilities ,it is only possible to give that section bituminous coal in sufficient quantities to enable the essential war industries to continue in full operation. It has also been necessary to materially reduce the amount of anthracite coal normally shipped into Virginia, and some other states.

To a certain extent this will cause some hardship to poultry raisers, particularly those who operate incubators and brooders. Poultry raisers should undertake during the summer months to get such anthracite coal as is required for incubator and brooder use and put it away until next spring.

The situation will be such next winter that the Fuel Administration cannot do as it did last winter because this year specific allotments of tonnage have been made, not only to states, but in a short time will be made to communities as well. If a certain community next Feburary or March has received its allotment, it will not be possible to get an additional car or two, even to take care of broodars and incubators.

If every poultry raiser will undertake during the summer and early fall to get the fuel which he required for next winter and spring use and to secure either one of the western anthacites or screened coke, it is likely that little difficulty will be experienced by the growers in raising their full quota of chickens next spring.

VILLAGE TERRORIZED

Six Clear Spring Youths Chase Draft Board Physician From Home.

Hagerstown, Md., Aug. 30.—Six Clear Spring youths Wednesday night terrorized Clear Spring, which was in an uproar for several hours. The band was headed, it is alleged, by a draftee, who, it is reported, applied for exemption, but was passed by Dr. Charles T. Mason, a member of Washington County Exemption Board No. 2.

Dr. Mason, chased form his home, ran, followed by the rioters, into the store of John T. Snyder and Sons, where he found refuge. He remained at the Snyder residence all night. The large front windows of the office of Justice Leonard P. Snyder were smashed by the mob, which fired shot after shot as they ran up and down the streets, terrorizing the people, some of whom sought shelter in cellars and other places of safety. Warrants were issued today for the offenders. Justice Snyder offered a reward of $65 for the arest and conviction of the rioters.

The attack upon Justice Snyder's office was made by persons who, it is alleged, were given stiff fines for motor vehicle speeding. Justice Snyder had ben threatened numerous times recently.

THE HINDENBURG LINE

War Experts Regard it as Unmaintainable for Retreating Huns. Americans Have Vital Part in Pressing Foe Back.

This is the judgment of the military observers at the War Department. It is added that the certain failure of the Germans to hold that part of the line extending from a point opposite Rheims to Laon will be due largely to the American troops operating out of Fismes.

It was pointed out yesterday that the British having crossed the Hindenburg line east of Croiselles, the thrust that will make the line absolutely untenable is the American thrust which is now menacing that part of it east of Fismes. The part that the French are paying to bring about the complete abandonment of the line is the extension of their salient between Nesle and Licourt.

It is suggested that the German soldiers have been told that there is vast man power coming from the east. It is stated by the experts, however, that German efforts to fill her levies from Iithuanian, Esthonian and Livonian sources are known to have failed.

The German divisions already in action have been cut up and prisoners, it is specifically pointed out, have been taken at all points from the Switzerland border to the Channel Ports, and none but Germans have been among the prisoners. Yet it is well known to the War Department that the Germans tried recruiting in the so-called conquered provinces.

It is argued that it will be immensely more difficult now that Germany is losing to fall back for self-defense to points close to the Rhine without giving the allies for the present an opportunity to shell the Rhine towns. The latter development seems to be absolutely certain, if the wings of the German army are rolled back on the center by the successful thrusts now in sight by the British on the north and the all American army on the south.

Special Officer Shot.

Fleet A. Reagan, special officer for the Southern Railway, who was shot Wednesday by Henry Bratcher, a negro, is in a critical condition in Danville. Hope of capturing Bratcher has practically gone. County officers say that they have been handicapped in the hunt by lack of men.

SICKNESS AND FAMINE SWEEPING AUSTRIA

London, Aug. 30.—The Vienna Arbeiter Zeitung puts startling figures of illness and starvation in all the provinces of the dual empire except the Czech, where the people refuse to export any food supplies, according to an Exchange Telegraph dispatch received here.

Four Desperadoes.

Four white men who ten days ago broke jail at Reidsville, N. C., are roaming through the woods between Danville and the State line committing depredations. Armed with pistols, which were stolen from Marvin Stevens' store, near Gatewoods, they have raided farm houses.

ST. MARY'S OPENING DELAYED.

Repairs in progress at St. Mary's Academy will probably delay the reopening of that institution until September 9. For many years past studies have started at St. Mary's on the first Tuesday in September, when all necessary repair work has been completed, but this year the Sisters of the Holy Cross, who conduct this excellent educational institution, have met with difficulties in that respect brought about by the war.

Among the professional entertainers to appear are Private Dave Schorr, who made esuch a big hit when he appeared in Alexandria recently in his "nut" act.

Others who will perform are, Geo. Kreer, Happy Jack Lambert, O'Connor and Bipaldi, Dilion Trio, A. Pollak, Cohen and Williams, and Di Garloff, a Russian Opera Star.

The prices are reasonable and a treat is in store for whose who attend. NEWS OF THE DAY

Bitter anti-German feeling is spreading throughout Turkey, according to advices from Constantinople, due to the failure of the Germans to help the Turks regain Bagdad and Jerusalem. A gloomy picture of the Turkish economic situation has just been drawn by the Ottoman minister of finance in the Turkish parliament. He is quoted as having said: "The rise of prices for necessities in Berlin has been 124 per cent; in Vienna, 178 per cent, and in Constantinople, 1,970 per cent. "It is estimated that one-quarter of the papulation has perished during the war. Mothers are surrendering their babies because the government is unable to feed them."

Frederick Wagner, German born farmer, living twenty miles south of Hot Springs, Ark., was assassinated from ambush late Tuesday. The killing is believed to have been the result of alleged pro-German statements made by Wagner. The man was shot while working in a cotton field.

Detective Fred Butcher, of Cleveland, Ohio, answered the phone at a local police station and heard a woman's voice querulously ask: "Say what do you get at the Probate Court when you go there to get married?" I suppose a marriage license," the officer answered. "Oh, all right," the voice replied; "I just didn't know. But I guess they got mixed this time, and gave my husband a liquor license. We have been married four months and he hasn't been sober once since."

The avowed intention of milk producers in Maryland and Virginia to raise the wholesale price of milk forebodes an increase in the price of milk to the consumers in Washington. These producers plan to raise their wholesale price from 33 1-2 cents to 40 cents per gallon. It is predicted by local milk dealers that if this increase is permitted they will have to sell retail at 17 or 18 cents a quart.

With the assurance from Mexico authorities that there would be no repetition of the outbreak on the border at Nogales, Ariz., which resulted in the death of three Americans, the matter is considered a closed incident by both State and War Department officials.

Mrs. J. J. Mapp, 52, was attacked and killed by an infuriated Holstein bull near her home in Monroe county, Mich. The beast had been raised by the family as a pet.

GERMANY AND PEACE

When Senator Lodge, speaking from the floor of the Senate, warned the country that Germany would again undertake to weaken the hand of her enemies through peace propaganda, he gave notice of a danger against which the allied powers must be on their guard. Disheartened by successive defeats, Germany may be expected to launch a new campaign for a truce in the fighting, and she will employ every devious method at her command to create a sentiment among the peoples now fighting her, for a cessation of hostilities.

But this propaganda must fail. No peace can be made with Germany except upon a basis of a definite and decisive military victory. The world in arms must reconcile itself to this fact. Terms must be dictated, and they will be dictated. Otherwise, the peace which will come will not endure. If the German military machine is allowed to exist it will again fourish; if it flourishes, another war must be fought.

Richard S. Edmonds, editor of the Manufacturers 'Record says unconditional surrender must be America's answer to any suggestion of peace from Germany, and there should be no consideration even of unconditional surrender until Germany's armies have by the power of might been driven from every county which they have overrun and until millions of soldiers of the allies—which means our soldiers and the soldiers of our European allies—have marched through Germany and Austria and Turkey and taken possession of Berlin, Vienna and Constantinople. Not until this has been done will the people of these countries fully comprehend that all their boasted power is gone, and that they have been overwhelmingly defeated.

Then when the rulers and the military leaders jointly responsible for the last four years have been hanged or shot—and not until then—should there be any gathering around a peace table.

Until our armies are in the capitals of these countries of unspeakable crimes, and have made their rulers pay the last penalty in their own death, should we for one moment consider meeting the representatives of these countries for peace.

We are not fighting in any war such as the world has ever known. We are not fighting human beings such as civilization has known. We are fighting fiends, superfiends, who have brought upon the world such suffering, such an outpouring of blood, as has not been known through all the history of mankind. These criminals, these murderers, these rapists, these looters, these manglers of women and children, these fiends of hell itself, who put to shame all that hell had ever known, must be treated as we would treat the blackest criminal who ever disgraced humanity.

PROPER HOUSING

To the Editor of the Gazette.

In the Gazette I have noticed an appeal from the Chamber of Commerce to the citizens of Alexandria for co-operation in housing both army men and employes of the shipbuilding plant, it being set forth that it is the patriotic duty of every citizen to do this in order to help win the war. It is, indeed, a patriotic duty not only from national but also from a humane standpoint.

There are some landlords in this city who ought to be classed as "pirates." When the city is now crowded to its full capacity there is one landlord especially who has taken advantage by increasing the rent on a tenant, thereby forcing him to pay considerably more than the place is worth. This landlord has failed on his own side of the fence as it were by not keeping his property in a sanitary condition, thereby endangering the health of his tenant. When appealed to for relief we were told if we were not satisfied to get out as we do he could get more for his place were we to vacate.

In discussing the matter with an attorney in this city I was informed there is a "blue law" in effect here which protects the landlord and leaves the tenant or prospective tenant to the mercy of the landlords.

This is, indeed, a pretty state of affairs and is a very unfair deal to strangers and others within your gates who are asking for only a square deal and who are anxious and willing to pay for proper housing.

Now is no time for "piracy" or "graft" of any sort, but all should work in one tremendous universal grand brotherhood for God and our Country. We cannot hope to achieve success in any other way.

What shall your answer be?

Householder.

Your Winter's Coal Supply

On account of rulings of the U. S. Fuel Administration, it seems doubtful if Virginia will receive sufficient anthracite coal to supply the demands. If present rulings are maintained, this shortage will be very great in Alexandria and we earnestly advise our customers to put in a reasonable amount of bituminous coal as a safeguard against a coal shortage next winter.

We are now securing some very fine bituminous coal which we believe will work in all characters of coal burners but the Latrobe stoves.
